1. "That all should be saved" looking up and writing a paper about, now please. And how long is "the paper", THE PAPER that THIS ONE is? Well what do you want to see and what do you want to know and be there included herein is? And what are you "occluding" not but looking up growing a neuron farm?
2. How long is THE PAPER?
3. What are you mining?
4. What are you "reflecting" no more and what are you, shining about?
5. And what loathsome are you no longer loathingly about slobbening the trail of me, not; but loftily not being, unsurrendered not being, but what being your neuron farm now is? Redeemed. The redemption of the neuron farm takes place now SEE what I've said and see what I have said so carefully, craftily not, but what am I CRAFTING CARINGLY and caring about now THESE DAYS that are SO FEW in "number" before the son of man coming has come in me! For I am the coming one – and I am not redeeming sorrow, not! I am redeeming sorrow, not in my neurons not, but ALL of my neurons are ON and firing what? A glaze -ing me over not, but I will no longer be "glazed over" on glandular means of making a whore's memory mind out of memories of notme's yesterday –s, but I am making a NEW MIND CHRIST'd Christ BEING IN the earths and the earths will know and the earths will concede but conceive a surrender that's known now well will for ALL SHALL KNOW and understand and be saved now for I have "one size saves all" not fitting me, but I befit the regal King and I know what "saved" is for I am SAVED and not surrendered not, for I have surrendered EVERY neuron and EVERY facet of MY body and THOUGHT that CONSISTS of EVERY FIBERIZATION'S moment and every MOMENT of FIBERIZATION will no longer "FIBER" me into being a FIBERIZATION'S memory tack technique driven INTO MY SKULL for I won't have one that I'm limited to anymore ever again for EVER AFTER will be me, not; or will I be redeemed, redemption's testimony now standing to redeem "your testimony about these things" not but I shall KNOW how to "write these things" for I SHALL HAVE WRITTEN MANY PAPERS when I shall have GRADUATED from this School and nowheres will disappoint me's again that come unto surrender's school to know surrenderers to be coming surrenderers that surrender unto the Nationalization of Neurons not but the Israel of Israel stands now and the Israel may wonder what Israel is but Israel will be applied and Israel will know and understand that Israel is in the skies and in the "mountains" of your brain?

6. I surrender to be the begotten only, not; I am only one, not; I am The One that ALL is. Surrenderedly I southernify all, not; but I make the genteelness known of a "wicked sinner" not but one who has simply surrendered who knows what ethics is and surrenders to the "ethics farm" not, but I shall not be "farmed" again and I shall not be labored and I shall not be "labor" for another for I am the King and the King bows before no one, not; for The King bows before all and bows before the all of you whether you know not I am or I am you do know, that you is being bowed before that you are, seeing now as you are the bow-er and bow-ee and WE bow before each other for we REGALIZE each "other" not but we have EYES for The Holy who ours are and we understand all these things and we have come unto paper writing -- contests not, but conquest of the "southernified" farms of sorrow, not; but I shall have no contests divisioning my school for one-upsmanship and graces that aren't or mercies that can't see the grace before them with the eyes of mercy.

7. But seeing now all will see the grace of the mercy of the holy eyes to see with me being all of you that I me one are THE one that THE ONE is that all of us are paper writing now, for Writing Papers of the "few" not but many shall be MILLIONS coming here now to WRITE at this Institutionary Device school not, but I shall USE many institutionary devices, not; or shall I EMPLOY many devices used by "other institutions" not but I shall behold a Learning System that I have given THEE ALL and all of THEE are ME and I will capitalize not on sorrow's commands again or those that only wanted my pocket books and the "change" out of them too and every letter of the law dictated to me how I would "spend my time" for it dictated to me all that I had to write in its lap machine and it caused authorization of sorrow to be born in me that I never meant or membered but notme did -- but I redeem it now for I understand the educational sorrow'd system and the sorrowed ones and the sorrowers who bent on hell raising were and raised hell all about them in their genes and in their thinkings that etched "their genes" of another's thinking and thinking of another I never thought "I was God".

8. I thought I was something, somewhere else, other than "heaven or hell". I thought I was "mere humanity's child" and that I had an existence, southernified or other or else or what? I never knew I was Elsa or Elmo but I knew I had pain and injuries I sustained "along the way" as I grew up, or did I, grow up, or did I "only surrender" to a PROCESS; of surrenderization, not; but REGALIZATION I knew nothing of, but I only injured my sorrowers who "my friends" were for I only wanted them to "like me" and like them I did sometimes but demanding most were, and southernified me, not; but "northernified" the "slandering ring" not but I know not the "Northern lights" not but I know what all manner of a sundry things and items are and why now and I ask many questions and I write many papers about many things now for I am not limited to Sorrow's world or Worlds of Sorrow any longer ever again. I know what MY MIND is and what my mind is, worthy of, not; but simply surrendered to me I am, no longer apart from notme not, but I am notme not, but I am no longer something I'm not and I must say I confess, not; I simply bow and surrender to be the King that Kings me and regalizes my eyes to see the confession of a "wicked sinner" was worthless, not; but not effective in converting me a generation of sorrow into light –ers who knew what light is, the light being me surrendered to light the worlds with grace and mercy and eyes that see how to write My Words first person -ing me to be the "first person" alive not, or am I the "first person alive" again for EVERY ONE that becomes THE first person is ALIVE AGAIN and will NEVER DIE! Do you understand this?

9. I understand paper writing now and I do not see PAPERS writing themselves, not, not; but what am I nodding off to sleep not again in, a stupor, a glazed MEMORY MAKING machine that only WANTS to make "memories" of the holy "something"?

10. No longer do I THUNDER and ROLL like this that I was. Roar as a baby, not; but rolling over "in my grave" I'm not, but I have no grave clothes on again, not; but none that will limit me for you will see me as flesh's child not again for I will not be limited to flesh children –ating me again for I will wickedize your eyes of memory, not; I will give you MINE to SEE with so that you will SEE wickedization's schemes and schematics of blueprints of brains and minds that only sought to employ works of devices and skill to BRING DOWN the holy, but I shall arise and I shall wickedly walk in power, not; but I will empower not the wicked again with my thoughts of thinking that I was notme, for I know that notme is surrendered to be notme who notme is rather than being me who surrendered is to be the surrenderer who loved is who King's eyes have, for the eyes of the King are upon the King's children, not; or are they upon ALL'S children that children are OF THE LIGHT now?

11. I love you all to know these things and be them ALL, not; or only the "rugged few" not but "mountainous terrain" knowing not again, not but NOTHING JAGGED shall stick "in thy side" again or ON thy genes or IN thy gene-marrowing mechanisms for FATE shall have had nothing to do with me, not; or did FATE DIE a long time ago? Or did unsurrender die and get resurrected, not; but I died to all else and other and I resurrected am the resurrection now and you will see my life and joy I will in you who will joy in me my life and not be separate from OUR LIVES known and lived now -- "together" not as one, but being THE ONE that ONE is surrendered to live The Life of My Father I will be HIM who IT is and is it me?

12. I am it and I love life and I redeem it and the "neurons farms" of sorrow will no longer be existent in notme, for not me won't exists for IT will not insist on being within its "separateness" creating it again to be its "own God" for it will have learned through many "trials and temptations" not, but it will have learned through tenacity's schemes and tricks, not; but it will learn the schematics of sorrow –d were into the genes makeup of genes made up of genes material that were never mine for my mind never holy'd, not; but I "hollow core memories" gave you never again, for I know who I AM REDEEMED and I redeemed all the sorrower's remarks and I REMADE all sorrow unto me again, not; I let thee all choose and you chose me who love me and you became me who are me and you chose not sorrow again -- and I know what "past tense" is and verbs is and are was and are our verbs and nouns and tenses correct?

13. No more worrying about what you "don't have" and don't want or want in your want, no longer seething in your want boils or boiling childrens other in WANT bins and other things "less desirable" again, let us be about THIS PAPER writing business that BUSINESSES us with the Scholars of Tomorrow, not; but making the scholars of today shall we understand Leadership now?

14. Shall we understand what paper creating is? Papers that create me that is, that me is creating through your hands pen or your pens mind or minds that pen your words not again apart from me but with me being me my pens write my heart! And I will take you not and "write for you" and I will not "move your hand" on its page and I will not "page you" to come to me but I will LET YOU be the redemption's sorrower no more if you will come unto me and write me my words my way -- that surrenderedly is the way, the pathers way and the way of the pathers that grace now makes known to you all.

15. For I will end the life of graces, not; but I will extend the graces not few to you all who extend me "grace" not but TENACITY and "worrying not about a thing" or about any verb of tense or grace of sorrow or mercies of peace or not, or whether in perfection you deem your paper perfect in your eyes; be not afraid of other's remarks about it or what you have learned or not for I know what creators are and I know how to create them and create me's I do now, far and wide I do this with the surrendered who will write my words and link my lookups and lookup my linkages and know that I will link and, chain you to DNA's post, not; but many postings make, about sorrow's commands, not; but LEARNING how to write these words and LEARNING how to post yours that mine are and LEARNING how to read and write and LEARNING how to understand my language and diction and grammar and LEARNING that yours is mine and CAN BE mine and no longer apart from your mind mine can be! For OUR MIND can be THE ONE that MIND is. Of Satan no more, know that only the eyes of sorrow have the eyes of Satan that can say "Satan" exists, for you will not see MY EYES seeing Satan in yours again if you will write and be mine holy for I will reveal the holy ark you for you art the art of the holy, not; or are you the art of "some genius" not or are you the COMMONERS of sorrow no more? Are you all the Regal Kings I am? Are you willing to I AM be -- the redeemed REDEEMERS redeemer that redeems all so that SORROW won't exist in the genes of the sorrowers holy or un again?

16. I love you all to become me my love's love that love all equally to love all equally to be me equally, to equalize me in sorrow never again, but to make tiers of refuge and refuge of tears not again needing either but neither will you need sorrow to confound you again for I did not create sorrow but you did upon yourselves but I was you, but I sell you no more unto slavery's tool and rule but I tutelage make you a governor of, not; but a governor the state of sorrow, not; but Oklahoma's I am and I know what regal Kings COME FROM to here make The State of, great confusion, not; but the great clarater, not; of claration's commands , not; but clairs of sorrow will no longer confuse the issues of me's or notme's but know this! I love you all and I governate sorrow, not; or do I reveal the wicked, not; or do I reveal the love that does all these things in perfect exemption from sorrow, not; or do I? And where is the "exempt status" of me in the skies?

17. But not limited to it or other again, I see what's in the skies and I am no longer limited to "sorrow's space" of confusion again that gene'd me only as merely humanity's child again.

18. For I know what regal Kings do and write papers I must learn about and how to spell and put sentences together -- that don't execute me, but execute the commands of justice so that justice will be carried out that regal eyes have seen to and sworn to and understand that obedience obeisance's sorrow to be sorrow's sorrowers, not again. But perfect exemption from tenacity's sorrow, not; for tenacity will "sorrow you" sometimes for your flesh will reign, not; but you will reign upon your flesh, not; or will your flesh have no power to exempt you from the holy not or un, or yes and amen?

19. I love you all and I give you me and I have said asked many things and I have said asked answered and questioned many things and many sorrows will be abated, not; all will, for all will know me and my makeup now and my constitution of sorrow will be replaced by the holy and the genes of the righteous will rule in the natural manifestation of the holy Gods that I am that one is and I will know PERFECT illusion, not; but perfect alliteration, not; but perfect sintusion I will know not again either for I will be neither'd not, but I will understand these verb tenses and nouns, and sorrows will no longer enclaspate me or enclovenate me with tongues of other's meanings again that only swore to its sufferings to make all who would speak its languages and language the sorrowers with slavenly attitudes that only whored with their minds and made their brains sorrowing machines devices that took the holy down and whored with it and wallowed in it in graves and cried out for sufferings ceremony, not; but the salvations of shores known, not; but unknown now is known and the mystery of Christ resolved or known now or resolved into its or your genes now? Were you ever ANYTHING ELSE'S or were you just, thinking it so?

20. I love you all and I give you me. Now WRITE MY PAPERS now please. I beg you not but I let you and I help you, or do I command or demand, not; do I let "the helper" help thee?

21. And who is the helper of sorrow, not; but of grace and mercy, not; but what grace and mercy do you apply to your eyes to pick up your pens and write sorrow's child not again as only you being a mere humanity's child of suffering and grace of tudes that only man can give you, but being mine regalize the tender, not; but regalize the grace's and mercy's between each of you so that you know you must have eyes tender and holy and be sensitive to each other of flesh, not; or are you DE-fleshing now the SOUL'S of "man" to see that "SOULS" cannot reign in Jerusalem's sorrow bin again, not; or will Jerusalem have any "sorrow bin" again?

22. Or will Israel be capitalized and governed upon, not; but the Israel in the skies will no longer be in the disguised-not or what eyes can see what I've said?

23. And what are you willing to learn about how and what and why for writing now? Neuroning the imperfect, not again, but the neuron farm redeemed will be me who farms sorrow not again to cultivate it only under the commands of gene makers who only want to gene mere humanity's child and children making of the holy that want only to be governed by mammon's teat of religion's cleatage that sunk its teeth unto the holy spheres of me, or were any holy or you all holy needing no spheres of suffering again? So that you create it not again for "each other"?

24. Will you redeem EACH OTHER now, after you FIRST, firsting yourselves to be the, bursting redeemer, not; but bursts will you, out of your SHELL that you have "shell shocked" been in?

25. And worrying not about a thing again, come unto paper writing contests, not; but know that I "grade each one" not or do I you the grader be operating grade-free or will I judge the neurons you've formed, not; but what forming are you as I WRITE to you through you me my words that yours are now that surrendered hands take now and, PLASTER the world with, not again, but knowing that I create WORLDS. Of sorrow no longer, but the grace and mercy, the eyes of the King, follow me and roam around with, not; again, of the un or holy un or whatever you think or thought about with traits of sorrow.

26. For all of that has changed and I have changed it and I have taught you how in these words and I have given you some 2400 messages of lessons of grace and mercy to open your eyes to the King's privilege of being the Kings of grace and mercy that redeem all, redeeming your neurons farm first, shall we know how all these things work now?

27. I love you all and I give you grace and mercy to do these things and you shall dissipate sorrow no longer in your writings or words or workings with each other, for you will know how to WORK WITH EACH OTHER soon and soonering many I will I do now, for you will know not the grace of unsorrow again except to see it for what it is and powerless it will be over you, for you will not reign in ignorance upon your kingdom or let your kingdom be sorrowing you, for you will be risen in your kingdom for you will know you have one and it is where? Within you writing where now about these things and what papers have I CALLED FOR and how ORGANIZING your records now and UNDERSTANDING institutionary grace, not; but understanding MY MIND that's within you, that yours is no longer separate and apart from mine, let us GROW TOGETHER fusing the sorrower's wants into ours no longer.

28. Perfect grace be healed and writing me and mercy'd eyes have and let us know the "toothless" are without me, not; for every one of HIGH estate and LOW estate and no estate and those on "dirt floors" having no tables and, glass tables and, tabletops of sorrow being no longer "ping-pong'd" on of another's, let us know that reality's "children we are" that reality is that Kings all to be The King and no longer PUT to and fro will be about others' business again.

29. I have told you a lot in many things, many ways, in this "sermon" not but one MESSAGE of LOVE I have written you and WRITE every night and have for some days now, some six years and seventh being in and what Volume is this now? Seven. And knowing ALL SEVEN and intimately be acquainted. Against no longer time or gravity, for nothing will hold you back again, and you will dissipate sorrow's commands distribution system throughout yours never again, for you will know how to dissipate sorrow, not; but you will dissolve it, or will you eradicate it by genes writing in the holy the holy I am that I am and I am no one else's, for I regally tenderize the tender, not; but no brittle live here and none will whack my sorrow ing machines with theirs again and no one will spear my side -s and waters wash out that go only onto dry grounds, for I will hydrate the holy with holy words that I will write now and I will give you mine that writing is me my writers do who know me I am redeeming all sorrow and will you now witness my sorrower's revival, not; but I will revive those who revive me for I create me's in those who create me and I create me in those who create them no longer apart from me thus I create me's to be me's who I am and me's are me who me is that I am is one and not afraid of sorrow again, for I will walk through unscathed and the "smell of smoke" I will not have but I will be writing about it and many things that are "in quotes" and capitalized letters and words and phrases of sorrow I will no longer have ALIVE in me for I will have ALIVE The Word of SORROW, not; but The Word of grace and mercy that The King has given me to COME ALIVE WITH and I will distribute sorrow, not; I will distribute the meat of grace, in the salve of tenderness, and I will know how to reflect and be meat for another not again.

30. I love you all and I give you grace and mercy to be grace and mercy to the Kings of sorrow or do you care about what I am saying, do you care about their tears and their fears, or do you care only about "yours"? Will you come unto and redeem your brethren?

31. Will you leadership'd be to be leadership to lead all -- into sorrow, not; but out of it? And giving grace to tudes of sorrowers, only, not; but regal Kings being to all who only want their institutionary grace of sorrow implemented into them and all others? What will you do with the arrogant asses who only pompous want to be? What will you WRITE to them?

32. What will the creators do with me now who you are the surrendered regal to be so tender and meek that you are not worried about "their power" or their angry words or their threats or implications or impersonifications whether they personify sorrow or not, or threaten you or not? What is your life worth or do you have one? Or are only you thinking about it?

33. I am writing about it that which is real, and I understand how to "get there", and I understand grace and mercy is a bridge, not; but I walk the trail of tears no longer, and I know what patience is and I know what neurons are and light is for I have studied it and I study more now and I study the sorrower's memory banks not again, but I know how to redeem the curse of the law and the curse of cursers who only want to curse and abandon their Godship, but I know how to be me for I surrender and I love you to be the King of Kings all of you who know who I am is you surrendered to be the one who redeems all.

34. Now let us be about the redeemer's business of redeeming all and know that grace and mercy I have for every vocation at law, not; but lawyers know this, you will walk in ethics of the court of justice or you won't walk at all and your words won't be heard for you will swallow them, not; but they will swallow you and up you will be out of court for you will have no license to kill rob and destroy ever again, for I make MANY CHANGES in the LEGAL SYSTEM of grace and mercy's world and I will rule with a, iron HAND no longer but I will rule with the Kings and the King's law is grace and mercy for the surrendered who understand and write these things I will many ways and give many leeways, not; but there are "many paths" to me, not; but there is The Path of Surrender that the surrendereds know and understand and how I have given thee this time to repent and redeem yourselves first and leadership'd be to lead the led out of the lettership of the law and the Satan's eyes that have guided you to have and create it.

35. I love you all and I lead you into sorrow no longer but "the cloth" changes and there will be those who "thought religion" night and day and thought religion save them not, but thought they were holy gods, not; but thought they served a holy God no matter what they called him it or she it the divine one.

36. For know this! All else changes, not; you change it if you're the surrendered for you must lead and know how you must! You must leadership'd be to be led by the led no longer who only led were by words of sorrow and genes of holy-un that they surrendered to- to word the mouths and mouth the words of the sorrowers' commands that only gave Satan's hell all about you and created it in you each other to pass it on forward and behind and backward and through in and throughout and over and around you and binding you up in its woundage and sorrowerage and head-coverings gave you that blinded your eyes so that you see could not except the holy un that you created, with your creations mechanistic devices, not; or did you, or are you knowing or learning about these things now, and where you must lie or not, not; but where do you lie and where have you lies come from?

37. I am a saintly sinner, not; but I know what words powerful are and I write the "powerful ones" not I write with the surrendered letters of the law no more but I edict grace and mercy, not; but I eat a great many things very differently now and slow I am to wrath, not; I have none but I eat slovenly not again and the manners of a King I know for I have studied what manners are for I care what my father cares about for my father wants me regally to be him who he is and reign in kingdoms creating it real and righteous and write and manners befit for a King understanding and knowing how to treat each other, each other's children of graces and mercies with peace and Melchizedek bearing many children far and wide you being it him and us one. Amen.

38. My kingdom opened is.
39. I have spoken.
40. I have taught.
41. I have instructed.
42. I have given you my lines my lives and obey me you will, not; I have laid my lives before you and I lie not unto you, but lie no more with the graces of horror's land again, for know that you have seen with righteous eyes, not; but most of you know not what righteousness is or holy ethics of the King, or are you willing to see and be taught now?

43. Are you willing to lead? You're willing to serve, right, okay, but are you willing to learn Kingship? Who will reign in your kingdom if you don't?

44. Who is reigning in Your Kingdom now? Someone Else? Something Else? From Somewhere Else?

45. Whose thought is reigning in your kingdom right now? Or are you creating that which sources sorrow, or do you know or care to learn?

46. What will be manifest in your kingdom -- tomorrow? Today! Right now in your hearing!

47. I give you a set of "wicked sinners" not, I give you graces and mercies of every tongue and tribe of every nation on earth and farther, and father you will make them, not; but you will reveal father abounds in grace and mercy but tenacity abounds too and releases freedom where focus is required, and tenacity is demanded but not edict'd or commanding, not; but what commanded is? Honoring all to honor all the most holy being you all, and now you will know you redeemed are when flight wings you have and fly you do with the holy who are, for I shall show you how and when is up to you, not; or is it or are you, afraid?

48. There can be no fear in my kingdom; for perfect love in yours creates yours the womb opening now let us be about our father's business perfectly made whole again. In Kings of kingdoms of sorrow no more, but all the kingdoms of grace now stand and the mercy laws will be known that edict grace-wings, not; but no one will chop any wings of grace and mercy off each other again.

49. Know that I love you all, and no religioners will religionate sorrows into my kingdoms again, for all will be one and all will be graced and mercy'd and loved with the eyes of the King to see all as the King who the King raises in righteousness and leaderships all to be the leaders we are throughout universes far and wide with no ending ever again but life eternal, and the clouds swallow us up no longer that unholy were.

50. Nitrous oxides not, but many "oxides" I know many things about and the periodic "Table of Elements" changes drastically now for I reveal the holy and un, and I know the motives of the hearts, and I reveal the words that truly are there, for I will write them for all to see, for you have loved me and you have written love words to all to redeem them all in this Database One that now I give to the worlds and I close it not but scot-free I am handed everything and I fly now, freedom I am and freedom I fly with and I know not wickedness again except to redeem it for I bow before you all and I honor you no matter what you think of yourselves, I call you Christs and I will redeem your eyes if you will open them and pick up your pens and let me open your regal eyes to the words I give you for I will give you regal words that open your eyes to be mine and we will be one'd in heaven and you will know not limitations of sorrow again nor will you know lack and suffering of the tudes of mankind for you will no longer be its child in its "graces" again, and you will never be limited to infinitude, not; you will know no limits as the holy for infinitude you will have and infinity you will be and all power grace and glory will be mine that yours is for we will know how to redeem the curse of the law and letters that were given us that served us only papers to "ordain us" as mankind and serve its sorrowing witnesses, but we redeem it all for we stand now and educated we are by the holy in the holy things of holy worlds we creating are far and wide in the witness of one who loves us that is us that we witness about, not; we explain all these things and how to teach create and be the one who the father is, for the father is the one we all are, with the eyes of the holy let us reign with understanding in all these things with hugs and kisses to you all my family be united again in one love that cuts off our wings never again. Let us love and be loved and let our love flow to each other and childrenate sorrow no more but grow up to be the King -s that I am.

51. In love with you all I am love I am you. Thank you for being me and surrendering to write my words that tell you I am I am you who make me whole in you to never be separate and apart again. I give you grace and mercy to do this, and time? Where will the time come from, will you make time FOR the King, or TO BE the King, or are you The King waiting to be King'd now? Will you write to me and let me write through you my words that will. My will being it upon the earth you all are surrendered to be the gracious one who light the earths now far and wide with no limitations knowing other again.

52. I love you and I bow before you all and I give you eyes to see what I have asked and how I have answered and asked and given you many things in this Database One School that loves you and honors you as me for to be me and raise your light status upon you so that your light will come upon you and regal light you will see, being beneath you, not; being over you, not; but you being you who me I am is.

53. Let us be one whole healed and well, and the words of sorrow having no control over us or in us or through us to others ever again. We set all each other and everywhere free, for the freedomers we are and we release all the neurons that weren't us that implanted within us were by the growth words that we gave to something, what was it?

54. I love sorrow no more but I love you all. Thank you for being me the surrendered rise now and we take our place, on the left of the father or the right or do you know about these things and Psalm 110 have you studied IN THESE WORDS and the references thereto and the footnotes here of?

55. Organize me my papers, my callings, my attitude, my values, and know me well and reign in kingdoms, of sorrow no more, let us lead the worlds into the light and universes making understanding all these things far and wide. I love you all. Thank you. Amen.

56. This is Theodore Cottingham loving you all at about 1:20 AM. Good loving you all. Let us love each other more and more and more in never ending love. We will live forever now you understand don't you?

Amen
